

A Day With Lawrence Griffith

Author of Flowers and Herbs of Early America

Tuesday, March 31, 2009

12:30 p.m.

Reynolda Gardens,
Education Wing
of the Greenhouse
100 Reynolda Village

General Admission: $5.00

Free for Friends of Reynolda Gardens

Speaker Lawrence Griffith, curator of plants, Colonial Williamsburg will discuss his experience researching and growing long-lost and underappreciated plants.

At the conclusion, there will be a book signing.

Books will be available to purchase.

For more information call: 336-758-3485

©WFU/Ken Bennett

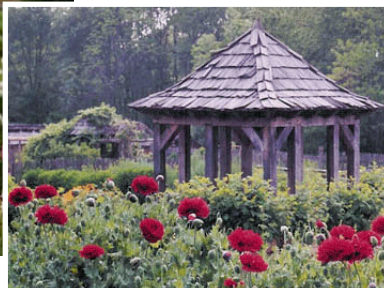

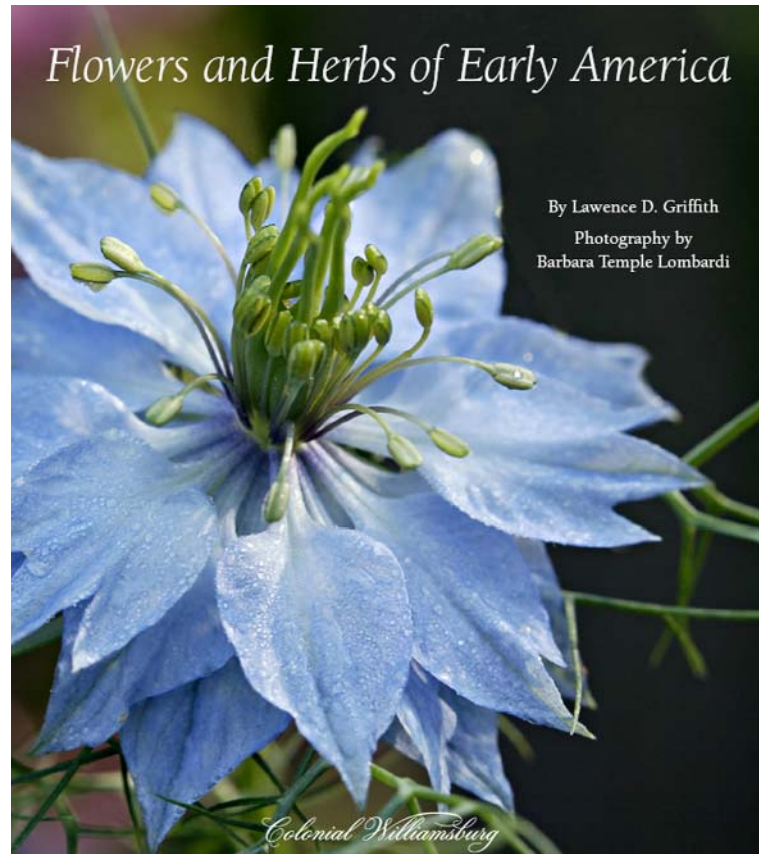

Photo courtesy of Dan Johnson

4:00 p.m.

Historic Bethabara Park

General Admission: $3.00

Tour of the restored 1761 Medical Garden led by volunteer curators Bev Nesbit and Dan Johnson

(This garden is the earliest known, well-documented colonial medical garden in the United States and is referenced in Mr. Griffith's book.)

At 5:30 p.m. Mr. Griffith will discuss plants used in colonial medicine, followed by a reception and book signing.

Sponsored by Reynolda Gardens of Wake Forest University, Historic Bethabara Park, and Forsyth County Historic Resources Commission.