

Mrs. Jeannette F. Porter was born in High Point, NC on the 26th day of August to Mr. and Mrs. John Ferguson. She was reared as an only child and lived in the furniture city until she graduated from William Penn High School. After high school, she attended A&T State University and finished in the spring of 1968 with a Bachelor of Science degree in Business Education.

Her longest employment career has been in the housing market. She received her basics from the Housing Authority of Winston-Salem and four local real estate companies. Currently, she is affiliated with A Quality Realty, LLC as a Broker Associate. For over 20 years, she has been a part-time substitute teacher in the W-S Forsyth Co. School System.

While living in High Point, she was a member of St. Stephens AME Zion Church. A short while after she got married and moved to Winston-Salem, she joined Shiloh Baptist Church where she sings in the choir, served for 20 years on the general finance committee and is a member of the trustee ministry and the women's ministry.

Currently, she is an active member of the A&T State University Twin City Chapter.

Her husband, Albert T. Porter, Jr., is a retiree of Winston-Salem as an Engineering Technician.
