

Larry Davis, AIA, LEED AP, is a licensed architect with 20 years experience practicing primarily in Chicago, Illinois; Naples, Florida and Denver, Colorado. He has been in Winston-Salem for three years. His work has included a vast range of commercial clientele including health care; federal, state, and local government projects, aviation, historical preservation, retail, higher education, and hospitality. He holds a Bachelor's degree in Architecture and Urban Design from the University of Kansas at Lawrence.

He believes that individuals with a passion for the built environment understand its impact on the social and economic well-being of a community from the perspective of planning, design, aesthetics and comprehensive involvement. Winston-Salem has a unique character, in which individuals involved with a passion for quality growth can be sustained in an aesthetically controlled environment.
