

Rosa Johnson butler received a Bachelor of Art degree from Salem College in Sociology with a focus on Art in 2000. She has interned with the National Archives in Washington, D.C. and the New York Public Library's Schomburg Center for Research in Black Culture. She is the personal archivist, landscape designer and garden consultant for Dr. Angelou. She is also an artist.

When relocating here from California 13 years ago, she was impressed by the natural beauty of the North Carolina, specifically Winston-Salem. She is ever so happy to be a part of what helps to keep Winston-Salem beautiful.
