

APPLICATION FOR TAX DEFERMENT
ON HISTORIC PROPERTY

1. Property owned by: Mrs. Barbara Babcock Millhouse
2. Location of Property (Street Address): 522 Salt Street (2148 Faculty DR)
3. Tax Block No. 563 Tax Lot No. 111
4. Historical significance of property and why it should be considered: Within the Old Salem Historic District (now declared a Registered National Historic Landmark by the National Parks Service) are both restored and reconstructed buildings which as a whole present a visual and authentic representation of the community of Salem between 1766 and 1850. This structure is considered by Old Salem, Inc an integral part of the total landscape. Subject to Zoning Ordinance Section 29-1, any exterior changes to or interior uses of this property are governed by the local Historic Districts Commission. John Joachim Hagen built a central chimney storey-and a-half log house with clapboard in 1816 as his residence and tailor shop. A later lean to was added in 1824 and a front stoop or porch on the sidewalk in 1828.
5. Describe present condition of property. What restoration, if any, is planned or has been done? Submit 2 x 2 slides showing exterior of property on all four sides and interior slides, if important:
The house was restored in 1957 to its 1828 appearance under the direction of Old Salem, Inc. in accordance with Old Salem restoration standards. It is presently in excellent condition.
6. I have read G.S. 105-277(f) and understand that this is a tax deferment and not an exemption, and if I fail to comply with the requirements of G.S. 105-277(f), I will be liable for the deferred taxes for the preceding five years plus interest.
The information I have provided is true and correct to the best of my knowledge.

1816 HAGEN HOUSE

Tax Block 563, Lot 111

Lot 72 (510 Salt Street). The central chimney storey-and-a-half log house with clapboard covering was built by John Joachim Hagen as his residence and tailor's shop in 1816. The Hagen House received a back lean-to addition in 1824 and a front stoop or porch on the sidewalk in 1828. After the widow Hagen left the property in 1844, the improvements were purchased by the widow Elizabeth Reich, and then her son, Charles. The property passed to Old Salem in 1953, and was sold, in turn, to Mrs. Barbara Babcock Millhouse in 1956 for restoration in 1957.
