

Virtual 15th Annual Fair and Affordable Housing Summit
April 22, 2021
2:00 p.m.-4:00 p.m.
Agenda

2:00 p.m.

Welcome

Wanda Allen-Abraha, JD, Director
City of Winston-Salem Human Relations Department

Greetings

Allen Joines, Mayor
City of Winston-Salem City Council
Denise D. Adams, Mayor Pro Tempore;
Community Development/Housing/General Government Chairperson
City of Winston-Salem City Council

Goals and Purpose

Robert Leak, Chairperson
City of Winston-Salem Human Relations Commission

Special Opening Speaker (10 minutes)

Jeanine Worden, Assistant Secretary for Fair Housing and Equal Opportunity, U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD)

2:20 p.m.

Highlights Reel: A Reflection of 15 Years and Successes

2:25 p.m.

Introduction of the Panel of Experts

Moderator: Phyllis Caldwell-George, CEO
Financial Pathways of the Piedmont

Housing Affordability for First-time Homebuyers

Dan Kornelis, (Ret.) Community and Economic Development Department Director; Forsyth County Government

Dr. Craig Richardson, Professor of Economics; Winston-Salem State University

Bianca Green, Community and Economic Development Department Loan Officer; Forsyth County Government

Fair Housing through the Lens of the Pandemic and Social Justice Movement

Dr. Sherri Lawson-Clark, Assistant Professor of Cultural Anthropology; Wake Forest University

Evictions and Housing Accessibility: Federal and State Moratoria

Ed Sharp, JD, Attorney; Legal Aid of North Carolina- Greensboro Office

Housing Financial Assistance During the Pandemic

Dr. Stephen Sills, Professor of Sociology and Director of the Center for Housing and Community Studies; University of North Carolina at Greensboro

3:25 p.m.

Fair Housing Breaking Barriers Award Presentation

3:35 p.m.

Conclusion

