Answer to February’s trivia question: The Quarry at Grant Park

March’s trivia question: When does shelter reservation season begin?

Check Out Our App!

With the return of Spring means the return of warm weather and longer and sunnier days. That makes Spring the perfect time to get back outside and enjoy our beautiful parks again. Until that time comes, did you know that we have a mobile app to help you virtually explore our parks and amenities?

With over 80 parks and more than 300 amenities, we are certain you can find what you’re looking for! Our app provides users with the ability to find specific amenities, such as parks, ball fields, tennis courts, trailheads, recreation centers and more! Users can also find upcoming programs and activities, reserve picnic shelters, interact with 360° photos, and get directions to their favorite parks. Search “Winston-Salem Recreation” in the app store to download & start exploring!

We Want You to Join Our Team!

Looking for a fun summer job? You’re in luck! Your local Recreation & Parks Department is currently hiring:

- Playfield Leaders for summer camps. Contact a recreation center if interested.
- Lifeguards are hiring over 80 positions this summer with a starting pay of $15/hour! Contact Heather Candelora if interested (heatherca@cityofws.org).

Spring Sports

Adult Softball is back this Spring! Time to gather your teammates and get ready to play. Registration is going on now through March 24. The season officially kicks off on April 10. To register, email Katie Thomas at katherinet@cityofws.org.

Future Athletes Little Hitters is a program designed for children ages 3-4 years old. This program teaches youngsters basic skills for baseball. Registration is going on now through March 3. Future Athletes Little Racers teaches kids ages 3-4 years old running techniques. Registration runs March 24—April 14. Both programs are very popular and tend to fill up fast. Don’t delay, email April today! To register, email April Hawkins at aprilh@cityofws.org.

WePLAY Youth Baseball League starts up soon! Registration is going on now through March 10. This league is for ages 5-12 years old. There are four age groups and each level works with teaching kids a different skill. For more information, email Alonzo Winfield at alonzow@cityofws.org.
