ANALYSIS

The petition is a final development plan that completes a TWO PHASE rezoning which began in 1994. This site is located between a business district to the west, a church to the east, and RM-5 zoning across Country Club Road to the south. The current Tract Two site has one small residential structure; a structure on the tract one portion has already been torn down.

The current project for Tract Two proposes to add an office structure to the zoning lot and retain the existing structure as another office building. The uses proposed have previously been approved in the first phase rezoning. These uses, in conjunction with the church to the east, form a gradual transition from the business district to the residential district further east.

Although this site is adjacent to single family homes to the north, the northernmost 146 feet of this site has remained an undisturbed natural area. This provides a substantial buffer between those homes and the business uses approved for the site, and is therefore consistent with Vision 2005. Phase one included parking and an outdoor display area for the existing business directly west of this site.

Staff commends the petitioner for the buffering of uses to the north and the nearby business, multifamily, and institutional uses along Country Club Road.

FINDINGS

1. This site is located between a business district and a church and is directly across the road from RM-5 zoning.
2. This petition is consistent with Vision 2005.
3. This second part of a TWO PHASE rezoning contains office uses that have been previously approved.
