During the year of 2018 there were (178) strangulation attempts and injuries reported by victims in the City of Winston-Salem.

Most victims who experience strangulation or choking may not encounter complications until several days or weeks after the incident has occurred.

If you are a victim of strangulation, know your risk and seek medical attention immediately.
SYMPTOMS

- Neck Pain
- Jaw Pain
- Sore Throat
- Voice Changes
- Difficulty Breathing
- Vision Changes
- Light Headedness
- Headache
- Weakness or numbness to arms or legs